

Freedom Historical Society

Presents:

Freedom Houses: “Then and Now”

This program will highlight the research and efforts underway to update the informational book about Freedom houses. This project was originally started by resident Donald Chase in 1976. Some historical photos will be shown along with stories that help to form Freedom’s rich history.

circa 1881

circa 2013

Freedom Town Hall
Elm Street
7 P.M. Wednesday September 17th

No Charge Open to the Public
Fresh Cider and Cider Donuts from Apple Acres in Cornish, Me.

For more information please call 603-301-1107